

I oppose any action by the FCC that would restrict the ability of satellite radio services to offer locally oriented content. Consumers benefit from competition in all industries. Any act that limits competition harms consumers. Don't give in to the vested interests represented by the National Association of Broadcasters. They only want to restrict competition and protect themselves. They aren't interested in protecting consumers.